Cop impersonator gets six months in jail for stealing car

BY CHRIS DUMOND
cdumond@newsadvance.com
(434) 385-5531

A Troutville man caught on Wards Road driving a stolen car while impersonating a police officer was sentenced to six months in jail Friday.

The car theft sentence was in addition to Timothy Frazier's earlier sentence of two months in jail on two counts of impersonating an officer here as well as three years and two months prison time handed down this week in Roanoke and Botetourt County.

Frazier